SUMMARY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) periodically reviews its regulations to ensure that they are current, correct, and consistent. This document amends various sections of title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR) to correct those discrepancies.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

It is the policy of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to periodically review title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR) to ensure that it is accurate and up-to-date so that the importing and general public are aware of CBP requirements and procedures regarding import-related activities. As part of this review policy, CBP has determined that certain corrections are necessary affecting parts 4, 24, 101, 102, 127, 159, 161 and 177 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR parts 4, 24, 101, 102, 127, 159, 161 and 177).

Discussion of Changes

Part 4

Section 4.7 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 4.7) sets forth requirements regarding vessel manifests. Section 4.21 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 4.21) concerns exemptions from tonnage taxes. Section 4.83 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 4.83) governs trade between United States ports on the Great Lakes and other ports of the United States. Sections 4.7, 4.21 and 4.83 each contain references to a Great Lakes license endorsement. The statutory provision providing for a Great Lakes endorsement, formerly found in 46 U.S.C. 12107, was repealed by § 1115(a) of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 1996, Public Law 104-324 (October 19, 1996). Accordingly, this document makes conforming amendments to 19 CFR Part 4 by removing references to the Great Lakes endorsement in § 4.7; by removing paragraphs (b)(11) and (b)(12) of § 4.21, which pertain to vessels with Great Lakes endorsements, and by removing paragraph (b) of § 4.83, which also pertains to vessels with Great Lakes endorsements. In addition, paragraph (a) of § 4.7 contains a typographical error. As such, paragraph (a) in § 4.7 is amended by replacing the word “Statment” with the word “Statement”. Section 4.85 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 4.85) concerns vessels with residue cargo for domestic ports. Section 4.85 contains a reference to a Great Lakes license endorsement, which was formally repealed, as discussed above. Accordingly, this document makes conforming amendments to paragraph (a) in § 4.85.

Sections 4.80 and 4.80a of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 4.80 and 4.80a) concern coastwise transportation of passengers or merchandise. Each section contains certain outdated statutory references. Public Law 109-304, titled “To complete the codification of title 46, United States Code, “Shipping”, as positive law” enacted on October 6, 2006, recodified, reorganized and amended title 46, United States Code, including its Appendix. The Jones Act, formerly 46 U.S.C. App. 883, is recodified as 46 U.S.C. 55102. The Passenger Vessel Services Act, formerly 46 U.S.C. App. 289, is now recodified as 46 U.S.C. 55103. Former 46 U.S.C. App. 289c is recodified and now found at 46 U.S.C. 55104. Former 46 U.S.C. 12106(d) is recodified and now found at 46 U.S.C. 12117. Accordingly, this document makes the necessary technical amendments to paragraphs (b), (f) and (h) of § 4.80 and paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of § 4.80a to conform to the above-referenced statutory changes.

Part 24

Section 24.5 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 24.5) contains the legacy agency name and an outdated office name and address for CBP’s National Finance Center. Accordingly, § 24.5(f) is amended to remove the outdated information and replace it with the current agency name, office name, and address of the National Finance Center.

Section 24.24 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 24.24) sets forth CBP’s financial and accounting procedures. This section makes reference to the “Office of Finance.” On November 23, 2009, CBP reorganized the “Office of Finance” as the “Office of Administration” and changed its name to better communicate, internally and externally, the scope of the office’s responsibilities. The Office of Administration oversees all aspects of financial management and accountability for CBP including: accounting and budget; financial systems; procurement and acquisition; facilities and engineering; asset management and investment management, and oversight of all financial operations within CBP. As appropriate, the term “Office of Finance” is removed wherever it appears and is replaced with the term “Office of Administration”. Accordingly, this document makes non-substantive amendments to §§ 24.24(c)(8)(i), 24.24(e)(1)(ii), 24.24(e)(2)(iii), 24.24(e)(3)(ii), 24.24 (e)(4)(iii) and 24.24(e)(4)(iv)(A) to reflect the correct nomenclature and to § 24.24(e)(4)(iv)(B)(5), to reflect the nomenclature change of “Customs” to “CBP.”

Section 24.26 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 24.26) contains in various paragraphs an outdated office name, that is, the Financial Management Service Center, and an outdated address for CBP’s National Finance Center to where certain applications to participate in a program are to be mailed. Accordingly, paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (g) of § 24.26 are amended to replace the outdated office name and address with the current office name, Revenue Division, and address of the National Finance Center. Section 24.26 is further amended by replacing the word “Customs” with the term “CBP” in paragraphs (a), (c), (d), (e)(1), and (f).

Part 101

Section 101.9 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 101.9) sets forth the test programs or procedures for evaluating the effectiveness of new technologies or operational procedures. Section 101.9 contains a typographical error in the citation of section 411(a)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930. Section 101.9 is amended by correcting the citation to read “(19 U.S.C. 1411(a)(2)),” in paragraph (b). Section 101.9 is further amended by replacing the words “Commissioner of Customs” with the words “Commissioner of CBP”; by replacing the reference to “Customs Regulations” with a reference to “CBP regulations”; and by replacing the word “shall” with the word “will”.

Part 102

Section 102.20 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 102.20) sets forth the specific rules of origin by tariff classification. In paragraph (f) of § 102.20, titled “Section VI: Chapters 28 through 38”, the entry for 2933.11 - 2934.99 contains duplicative tariff numbers that should appear only in the column headed, “HTSUS.” As such, section 102.20(f) is amended by removing the tariff numbers “2933.11 - 2934.99:” that are set forth before the sentence that begins with the words, “A change to” in the column headed, “tariff shift and/or other requirements”.

Paragraph (q) of § 102.20, titled “Section XVIII: Chapters 90 through 92” contains a typographical error in the entry for subheading 9001.10, HTSUS, that provides for the tariff shift rule which encompasses optical fibers and optical fiber bundles and cables. As such, section 102.20(q) is amended by removing the typographical error of the word “performs” and replacing it with the word “preforms” in the entry for subheading 9001.90, HTSUS.

Parts 127

Section 127.43 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 127.43) sets forth regulations regarding establishing title to unclaimed and abandoned merchandise which has vested in the government. This section makes a reference to the outdated “Office of Finance.” Accordingly, this document amends § 127.43(e) to reflect the correct nomenclature.

Part 159

Sections 159.41 and 159.47 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 159.41 and 159.47) concern the special duties of antidumping and countervailing, respectively. These sections contain an outdated reference to the Department of Commerce's International Trade Administration (ITA) regulations. ITA promulgated a single new part 351 and removed parts 353 and 355 from 19 CFR chapter III by a final rule published in the Federal Register (62 FR 27296, May 19, 1997). Accordingly, §§ 159.41 and 159.47 are amended to conform the CBP regulations with the ITA regulations by removing the outdated reference to part 353 and replacing it with part 351.

Section 159.63 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 159.63) pertains to CBP receiving a certification from certain domestic producers to make a distribution of an offset under the antidumping and countervailing laws. This section makes references to the outdated “Office of Finance.” Accordingly, this document amends § 159.63(a) to reflect the correct nomenclature.

Part 161

Section 161.16 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 161.16) pertains to filing a claim for informant compensation. This section contains an outdated reference to a Customs form that was abolished and replaced by a DHS form and an outdated reference to an investigative position. Accordingly, §161.16(b) is amended by replacing the reference to “Customs Form 4623” with the reference to “DHS Form 4623”; by replacing the outdated position in the former Customs Service of “Special Agent in Charge” with the current position of “Special Agent in Charge, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Homeland Security Investigations”; and by replacing “Customs Headquarters” with the reference to “CBP Headquarters”. Also, the word “shall” is replaced with either “must” or “will”, as appropriate, in paragraphs (a) and (b) of §161.16 to conform with the plain English mandate.

Section 177.13 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 177.13) pertains to inconsistent customs decisions. This section contains an incorrect statutory citation. Accordingly, the first sentence in paragraph (a)(2)(i) of § 177.13 is amended by removing the incorrect reference to “(19 U.S.C. 1514(c) (1))” and replacing it with the reference to “(19 U.S.C. 1514(c)(2))”. Also, section 177.13 is amended by making non-substantive editorial and nomenclature amendments. As appropriate, the word “Customs” is replaced with the term “CBP” in the context of either a CBP official(s), CBP offices or CBP Headquarters in the title of the section, paragraph (a), the first sentence of paragraph (b)(2), and paragraph (d) of § 177.13. The words “Customs Service” are replaced with the term “CBP” in paragraphs (b)(2), (d), and (f) of § 177.13. Additionally, the word “shall” is replaced with the word “will” in paragraphs (a)(2), (c), and (f) of § 177.13. Finally, paragraph (b)(1) of § 177.13 is amended, by replacing the word “shall” with the word “must”.

Inapplicability of Notice and Delayed Effective Date

Because the technical corrections set forth in this document merely conform to existing law and regulation, CBP finds that good cause exists for dispensing with notice and public procedure as unnecessary under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B). For this same reason, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), CBP finds that good cause exists for dispensing with the requirement for a delayed effective date.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because this document is not subject to the notice and public procedure requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553, it is not subject to the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).

Executive Order 12866

These amendments do not meet the criteria for a “significant regulatory action” as specified in Executive Order 12866, as supplemented by Executive Order 13563.

Signing Authority

This document is limited to technical corrections of the CBP regulations. Accordingly, it is being signed under the authority of 19 CFR 0.1(b)(1).
