Abstract: The Consumer Advisory Board (CAB) and other Advisory Groups may invite individuals with special expertise to advise the groups on an ad hoc basis (Special Advisors). The selection-related information will allow the Bureau to obtain information on the qualifications of individuals nominated to the CAB and will aid the Bureau in selecting members for other Advisory Groups. The selection-related information from potential Special Advisors will aid the Bureau in selecting Special Advisors to the CAB and other Advisory Groups. The selection-related information will also aid the Bureau in determining the appropriateness of participation in particular matters. The information collected/advice from members and Special Advisors will aid the Bureau in the exercise of its functions. The feedback collected will allow the Bureau to evaluate and improve its advisory group program. Information collected will be used to issue travel orders or provide reimbursement for travel expenses, as applicable.

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS: Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the Bureau's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methods and the assumptions used; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated: April 20, 2016.

Darrin A. King,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
