All statements received, including attachments and other supporting materials, are part of the public record and subject to public disclosure. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly.

Background: The ACRSM provides advice and recommendations to the Federal Insurance Office (FIO) with respect to the creation and development of non-governmental, private market risk-sharing mechanisms for protection against losses arising from acts of terrorism.

Tentative Agenda/Topics for Discussion: This will be the second ACRSM meeting of 2019. In this meeting, the ACRSM will address, consistent with its charter's mandate, topics related to the role of nongovernmental mechanisms in supporting the terrorism risk insurance market. The ACRSM will receive updates with respect to: terrorism risk modeling; implications of non-renewal of the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program (TRIP); the TRIP event certification process; nuclear, biological, chemical, and radiological risk and its effect on TRIP; and private risk-sharing mechanisms. The ACRSM will also discuss potential event loss scenarios to analyze TRIP's risk-sharing mechanisms and other topics as necessary.

Dated: September 3, 2019.

Steven Seitz,

Director,

Federal Insurance Office.
