SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On February 8, 2019, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of opportunity to request an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on solar products from China for the POR February 1, 2018, through January 31, 2019.¹ In accordance with section 751(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.213(b), on (Shenzhen Portable) requested a review of the order with respect to itself² and on February 28, 2019, Suniva Inc. requested reviews of the order with respect to 11 companies/company groupings.³ On May 2, 2019, in accordance with section 751(a) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(1)(i), Commerce initiated an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on solar products from China with respect to 12 companies/company groupings.⁴ On May 22, 2019, Suniva Inc. timely withdrew its request for a review of all 11 companies/company groupings named in its February 28, 2019 request.⁵ On June 13, 2019, Shenzhen Portable timely withdrew its request for an administrative review of itself.⁶ No other party requested a review.

Rescission of Review

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1), Commerce will rescind an administrative review, in whole or in part, if the party that requested the review withdraws its request within 90 days of the publication date of the notice of initiation of the requested review. Shenzhen Portable and Suniva Inc. withdrew their requests for review within the 90-day deadline. Because Commerce received no other requests for review, and no other requests were made for a review of the antidumping duty order on solar products from China with respect to other companies, we are rescinding the administrative review covering the POR February 1, 2018, through January 31, 2019, in full, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1).
