National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan;

National Priorities List:

Deletion of the Intermountain Waste Oil Refinery Superfund Site

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Region 8 announces the deletion of the Intermountain Waste Oil Refinery Superfund Site (Site) located in Bountiful, Salt Lake County, Utah, from the National Priorities List (NPL). The NPL, promulgated pursuant to section 105 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) of 1980, as amended, is an appendix of the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (NCP). The EPA and the State of Utah, through the Utah Department of Environmental Quality (UDEQ), have determined that all appropriate response actions under CERCLA, other than operation and maintenance, and five-year reviews, have been completed. However, this deletion does not preclude future actions under Superfund.

DATES: This action is effective [Insert date of publication in the Federal Register].

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The site to be deleted from the NPL is: Intermountain Waste Oil Refinery Superfund Site, Bountiful, Salt Lake County, Utah. A Notice of Intent to Delete for this Site was published in the Federal Register (84 FR 35356) on July 23, 2019.

The closing date for comments on the Notice of Intent to Delete was August 22, 2019. One public comment in support of the deletion was received; no adverse comments were received.

EPA maintains the NPL as the list of sites that appear to present a significant risk to public health, welfare, or the environment. Deletion from the NPL does not preclude further remedial action. Whenever there is a significant release from a site deleted from the NPL, the deleted site may be restored to the NPL without application of the hazard ranking system. Deletion of a site from the NPL does not affect responsible party liability in the unlikely event that future conditions warrant further actions.
