On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) sheet from Oman and Korea, provided for in subheading 3920.62.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (“LTFV”).² The Commission further determines that imports of PET sheet from Mexico that are alleged to be sold in the United States at LTFV are negligible pursuant to section 771(24) of the Act, and its antidumping duty investigation with regard to PET sheet from Mexico is thereby terminated pursuant to section 703(a)(1) of the Act.³
