Certain Pasta from Italy: Initiation and Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a changed circumstances review (CCR) to determine if Newlat Food S.p.A. (Newlat) is the successor-in-interest to Delverde Industrie Alimentari S.p.A. (Delverde) in the context of the antidumping duty order on certain pasta from Italy. We preliminarily determine that Newlat is not the successor-in-interest to Delverde.

DATES: Applicable [INSERT DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER].

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 14, 1996, Commerce published in the Federal Register an antidumping duty (AD) order on certain pasta from Italy.¹ On July 30, 2020, Newlat requested that, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.216(b), Commerce initiate and conduct a CCR of the Order to determine if Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde. Newlat also requested that Commerce issue the preliminary results of this

CCR in conjunction with the notice of initiation, as permitted under 19 CFR 315.221(c)(3)(ii).\(^2\)

The domestic industry has filed no comments in response to the request for a CCR.

Scope of the Order

Imports covered by this Order are shipments of certain non-egg dry pasta in packages of five pounds four ounces or less, whether or not enriched or fortified or containing milk or other optional ingredients such as chopped vegetables, vegetable purees, milk, gluten, diastasis, vitamins, coloring and flavorings, and up to two percent egg white. The pasta covered by the scope of the Order is typically sold in the retail market, in fiberboard or cardboard cartons, or polyethylene or polypropylene bags of varying dimensions.

Excluded from the scope of this Order are refrigerated, frozen, or canned pastas, as well as all forms of egg pasta, with the exception of non-egg dry pasta containing up to two percent egg white. Multicolored pasta, imported in kitchen display bottles of decorative glass that are sealed with cork or paraffin and bound with raffia, is excluded from the scope of the Order.\(^3\)

Pursuant to Commerce’s August 14, 2009, changed circumstances review, effective July 1, 2008, gluten free pasta is also excluded from the scope of the order.\(^4\) Effective January 1, 2012, ravioli and tortellini filled with cheese and/or vegetables are also excluded from the scope of the Order.\(^5\)

Also excluded are imports of organic pasta from Italy that are certified by an EU authorized body in accordance with the United States Department of Agriculture’s National Organic Program for organic products. The organic pasta certification must be retained by exporters and importers and made available to U.S. Customs and Border Protection or the Department of Commerce upon request.

\(^3\) See Memorandum to Richard Moreland, dated August 25, 1997, which is on file in the Central Records Unit.

The merchandise subject to this Order is currently classifiable under items 1901.90.90.95 and 1902.19.20 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to the Order is dispositive.

Initiation of CCR

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce will conduct a CCR upon receipt of a request from an interested party or receipt of information which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the order. The information provided by Newlat demonstrates changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review to determine if Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.216(d). Therefore, in accordance with section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce is initiating a CCR to determine whether Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde for purposes of the Order.

Section 351.221(c)(3)(ii) of Commerce’s regulations permits Commerce to combine the notice of initiation and the preliminary results if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted. In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.

Methodology

In this CCR, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Act, Commerce conducted a successor-in-interest analysis. In making a successor-in-interest determination, Commerce examines several factors, including, but not limited to, changes in the following: (1) management; (2) production facilities; (3) supplier relationships; and (4) customer base. While no single factor or combination of factors will necessarily provide a dispositive indication of succession, generally, Commerce will consider the company to be a successor to the previous company if the new company’s operation is not materially dissimilar to that of its predecessor. Thus, if the record evidence demonstrates that, with respect to the production and sale of the subject merchandise, the new company operates as the same business entity as the prior company, Commerce may assign the new company the cash deposit rate of its predecessor.

Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review

We preliminarily determine that Newlat is not the successor-in-interest to Delverde. Record evidence submitted by Newlat indicates that the post-merger entity (i.e., Newlat, which includes Delverde) does not operate as essentially the same business entity as the pre-merger Delverde with respect to the subject merchandise. For the complete successor-in-interest analysis, refer to the accompanying successor-in-interest memorandum.
