Applicant’s Representations:

1. The Applicant is a multi-generational, single-family office that provides or intends to provide services to the family and descendants of Roopa Dewan. The Applicant is wholly owned by Family Clients and is exclusively controlled (directly and indirectly) by one or more Family Members and/or Family Entities in compliance with Rule 202(a)(11)(G)-1 (the “Family Office Rule”). For purposes of the application, the term “Dewan Family” means the lineal descendants of Roopa Dewan, their spouses or spousal equivalents, and all other persons and entities that qualify as “Family Clients” as defined in paragraph (d)(4) of the Family Office Rule. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms herein have the same meaning as defined in the Family Office Rule.

2. The Applicant provides both advisory and non-advisory services (collectively, the “Services”) to members of the Dewan Family. Any Service provided by the Applicant that relates to investment advice about securities or may otherwise be construed as advisory in nature is considered an “Advisory Service.”

3. The Applicant represents that: (i) each of the persons served by the Applicant is a Family Client (i.e., the Applicant has no investment advisory clients other than Family Clients as required by paragraph (b)(1) of the Family Office Rule); (ii) the Applicant is owned and controlled in a manner that complies in all respects with paragraph (b)(2) of the Family Office...
Rule; and (iii) the Applicant does not hold itself out to the public as an investment adviser as required by paragraph (b)(3) of the Family Office Rule. At the time of this Application, Applicant provides Advisory Services solely to Family Clients, including primarily to pooled investment vehicles that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by one or more natural persons that are Family Clients and operated for the sole benefit of those clients.

4. In addition to the Family Clients, the Applicant desires to provide Services (including Advisory Services) to the siblings of a spouse of a lineal descendant of Roopa Dewan (which descendant is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Applicant) and their spouses and descendants (the “Additional Family Clients”).

5. The Additional Family Clients do not have an ownership interest in the Applicant. The Applicant represents that the assets beneficially owned by Family Members and/or Family Entities (excluding the Additional Family Clients) would make up at least 95% of the total assets for which the Applicant provides Advisory Services.

6. The Applicant represents that the Additional Family Clients have important familial ties to and are an integral part of the Dewan Family. The Applicant maintains that including the Additional Family Clients into the definition of “family” for this purpose simply recognizes and memorializes the familial ties and intra-familial relationships that already exist, and have existed for at least 25 years and that the inclusion of the Additional Family Clients as members of the Dewan Family for which the Applicant may provide Services would be consistent with the existing familial relationship among the family members.

The Applicant’s Legal Analysis

1. Section 202(a)(11) of the Advisers Act defines the term “investment adviser” to mean “any person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports concerning securities…”
2. The Applicant falls within the definition of an investment adviser under Section 202(a)(11). The Family Office Rule provides an exclusion from the definition of investment adviser for which the Applicant is currently eligible but would no longer qualify if the Applicant provides Services to the Additional Family Clients. Because the Applicant has regulatory assets under management of more than $100 million, it is not prohibited from registering with the Commission under Section 203A(a) of the Advisers Act. In sum, absent relief, if the Applicant opted to render Services to the Additional Family Clients, the Applicant would be required to register under Section 203(a) of the Advisers Act, notwithstanding that (i) the Applicant does not hold itself out to the public as an investment adviser and does not market non-public offerings to persons or entities that are not Family Clients, (ii) the Applicant is wholly owned by Family Clients and controlled by Feroz Dewan who is a member of the Dewan Family, in accordance with paragraph (b)(2) of the Family Office Rule; and (iii) the Applicant is a "family office" for the Dewan Family and will not offer its Advisory Services to anyone other than Family Clients and the Additional Family Clients.

3. The Applicant submits that its proposed relationship with the Additional Family Clients does not change the nature of the office into that of a commercial advisory firm. In addition, the Applicant notes that if the siblings of Mrs. Dewan were the siblings of a lineal descendant, rather than the siblings of a spouse of a lineal descendant, there would be no question that each of them would be a Family Member, and their retirement assets would similarly fall within the definition of Family Client. The Applicant states that in requesting the order, the Applicant is not attempting to expand its operations or engage in any level of commercial activity to which the Advisers Act is designed to apply. There would only be two natural persons and their spouses and descendants who are not Family Members to whom the Applicant would provide Advisory Services if relief were granted. The Applicant estimates that if the Additional Family Clients' assets were managed by the Applicant, the assets owned by the Additional Family Clients would represent less than five percent (5%) of the Applicant’s assets.
under management. From the perspective of the Dewan Family, allowing the Applicant to provide Services to the Additional Family Clients is consistent with the existing familial relationship among family members.

4. The Applicant also submits that there is no public interest in requiring the Applicant to be registered under the Advisers Act. The Applicant states that the office is a private organization that was formed to be the “family office” for the Dewan Family and that the office does not have any public clients. The Applicant maintains that the office’s Advisory Services are exclusively tailored to the needs of the Extended Dewan Family. The Applicant argues that the provision of Advisory Services to the Additional Family Clients, does not create any public interest that would require the office to be registered under the Advisers Act that is different in any manner than the considerations that apply to a “family office” that complies in all respects with the Family Office Rule.

5. The Applicant argues that although the Family Office Rule largely codified the exemptive orders that the Commission had previously issued before the enactment of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, the Commission recognized in proposing the rule that the exact representations, conditions, or terms contained in every exemptive order could not be captured in a rule of general applicability. The Commission noted that family offices would remain free to seek a Commission exemptive order to advise an individual or entity that did not meet the proposed family client definition, and that certain issues would be more appropriately addressed through an exemptive order process where the Commission can consider the specific facts and circumstances, than through a rule of general applicability.

6. The Applicant maintains that, based on its circumstances — desiring to provide Advisory Services to certain Additional Family Clients who are relatives that have been considered and treated as family members for twenty-five (25) years and whose status as clients of the office would not change the nature of the office’s operations to that of a commercial advisory business — an exemptive order is appropriate based on the Applicant’s specific facts and circumstances.

7. For the foregoing reasons, the Applicant requests an order declaring it to be a person not within the intent of Section 202(a)(11) of the Advisers Act. The Applicant submits that the order is necessary and appropriate, in the public interest, consistent with the protection of investors, and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Advisers Act.

The Applicant’s Conditions

1. The Applicant will offer and provide Advisory Services only to Family Clients and to the Additional Family Clients, who generally will be deemed to be, and be treated as if they were, Family Clients; provided, however, that the Additional Family Clients will be deemed to be, and treated as if they were, Family Members for purposes of paragraph (b)(1) and for purposes of paragraph (d)(4)(vi) of the Family Office Rule.

2. The Applicant will at all times be wholly owned by Family Clients and exclusively controlled (directly or indirectly) by one or more Family Members and/or Family Entities (excluding the Additional Family Clients’ Family Entities) as defined in paragraph (d)(5) of the Family Office Rule.

3. At all times the assets beneficially owned by Family Members and/or Family Entities (excluding the Additional Family Clients’ Family Entities), will account for at least 95% of the assets for which the Applicant provides Advisory Services.

4. The Applicant will comply with all the terms for exclusion from the definition of investment adviser under the Advisers Act set forth in the Family Office Rule except for the limited exception requested by this Application.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.
J. Matthew DeLesDernier,

Assistant Secretary.
