In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, records contained in a system may be disclosed outside the Department as follows:

A. To the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local, Tribal, foreign, or other public authority responsible for enforcing, investigating, or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto when a record on its face, or in conjunction with other records, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program, statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, disclosure may be made if the information disclosed is relevant to any enforcement, regulatory, investigative, or prospective responsibility of the receiving entity.

B. To the Department of Justice, when the Agency—or any component thereof, or any employee of the Agency in his or her official capacity, or any employee of the Agency in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or the United States, in litigation, where the Agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the Agency or any of its components—is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the use of such records by the Department of Justice is deemed by the Agency to be relevant and necessary to the litigation; provided, however, that in each case, the Agency determines that disclosure of the records to the Department of Justice is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

C. To a Member of Congress or to a congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the congressional office made at the written request of the constituent about whom the record is maintained.
D. G. To the news media and the public, with the approval of the Chief Privacy Officer in consultation with counsel, when there exists a legitimate public interest in the disclosure of the information, when disclosure is necessary to preserve confidence in the integrity of USDA, or when disclosure is necessary to demonstrate the accountability of USDA’s officers, employees, or individuals covered by the system, except to the extent the Chief Privacy Officer determines that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

None.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:
All records are stored electronically or on paper in secure facilities in a locked drawer behind a locked door. The records may be stored on digital media. Each USDA mission area, agency, and staff office creates and maintains proper and adequate documentation of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, and essential transactions of the Department. This documentation protects the legal and financial rights of the Government and of persons directly affected by the Department's activities (44 U.S.C. 3101). U.S.C. Title 7, Chapters 55 - 2204 state that the Secretary of Agriculture may conduct any survey or other information collection and employ any sampling or other statistical method that the Secretary determines is appropriate.

The Department is also authorized to obtain certain information under Sec. 515 of the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2001 (44 U.S.C. 3516, Pub. L. No. 106-554) as well as Title 5 Part I Chapter 3 - 301, and 5 U.S.C. 552 § 552a.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVABILITY OF RECORDS:

Records are maintained in accordance with Forest Service records management policy and NARA’s General Records Schedule and/or NARA-approved records schedules for NARA Records Group 95. Records are maintained in categories organized by subject matter under the following file codes:
POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Records covered by this Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) are managed according to records retention schedules approved by NARA. Records schedules used to retain and manage records are found in Chapter 40 of Forest Service Handbook 6209.11 – Records Management Handbook. This Handbook is available on the Forest Service Website at https://www.fs.usda.gov/about-agency/regulations-policies. All unscheduled records—meaning records without a NARA-approved records retention schedule—are retained until a records retention schedule is approved by NARA. Once a schedule is approved, all existing records will be processed according to the requirements set forth in that schedule.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

When applicable, paper records are kept in a locked or secured office or office building, and/or retained in a Forest Service secured computer system and can only be accessed by authorized Forest Service employees. Department/Forest Service safeguards electronic records in this system according to applicable rules and policies, including all applicable automated systems’ security and access policies. The Forest Service has imposed strict controls to minimize the risk of compromising stored information. System access, including access to records stored in an Agency approved repository (such as Pinyon or its successor), is limited to individuals with appropriate clearances or permissions who need to know the information for performance of official duties.

The NRM applications, which houses the information in this system, have Oracle roles defined in the database. These roles define what level of access a user assigned that Oracle role may have. The User Management Application (UMA) is used to assign these roles, as well as to determining what subsets of the data—referred to as organizational units—a user may have access. UMA has an automated process to request and approve access to applications on the NRM General Support System. A user requests specific roles and organizational codes that allow access to specific subsets of data. The request is automatically forwarded to the requester’s UMA Manager who approves or denies the request. The UMA manager is responsible for determining what level of access a given user requires to fulfill job responsibilities.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking access to records contained in this system of records, or seeking to contest content, may submit a request in writing to the Forest Service FOIA/Privacy Act Officer (contact information at https://www.dm.usda.gov/foia/poc.htm). If an individual believes more than one Department component maintains Privacy Act records concerning him or her, the individual may submit the request to the Departmental Freedom of Information Act Officer, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW South Building Room 4104, Washington, DC 20250-0706, email: USDAFOIA@ocio.usda.gov.
The request should include a daytime phone number and email. Provide as much information as possible about the subject matter of the records you are requesting. This will help facilitate the search process.

If you are making a request for records about yourself, you may receive greater access by providing either a notarized statement or a statement signed under penalty of perjury stating that you are the person who you say you are.

Provide your full name, date, and either: (1) have your signature witnessed by a notary; or (2) include the following statement immediately above the signature on your request letter: "I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on [date]." Requests that do not contain the required declaration will be processed under FOIA, and, if records are found, you may not receive as much information, including information about you. If additional information is required to fulfill a Privacy Act request, you will be notified.

If you want records about yourself to be released to a third party (such as a law firm or other organization requesting records on your behalf), the third party may receive greater access if they have permission from you.

You will need a signed and dated statement that the Forest Service may release records pertaining to you. Include your name; date of birth; name of the person or organization to whom you want your records disclosed (where applicable); their contact information; list of records that may be released (all, emails, medical records, etc.). The person about whom the records will be released should include a statement indicating that they understand that knowingly or willingly seeking or obtaining access to records about another person under false pretenses and or without their consent is punishable by a fine of up to $5,000.
Requests must be for access to existing records. The Forest Service FOIA Office will not create records for the purpose of responding to a FOIA or Privacy Act request.

FOIA excludes Federal agencies from its definition of persons permitted to make FOIA requests [see 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(3)(A) and 5 U.S.C. 551(2)]. To avoid confusion as to whether Federal employees are requesting information in their personal or official capacities, requests from Federal employees should be submitted using personal resources.

CONTESTING RECORDS PROCEDURES:

Any individual may contest information contained within a record in the system that pertains to him/her by submitting a written request to the system manager at the address above.
