Title: Requirements for Insurance-Interest Rate Risk Policy.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Abstract: Section 741.3(b)(5) of NCUA’s rules and regulations requires federally-insured credit unions with assets of more than $50 million to develop, as a prerequisites for insurability of its member deposits, a written interest rate risk management policy and a program to effectively implement the policy. The need for FICU to have a written policy to establish responsibilities and procedures for identifying, measuring, monitoring, controlling, and reporting, and establishing risk limits are essential components of safe and sound credit union operations and to ensure the security of the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF).

Title:  Appeals Procedures, 12 CFR 746, subpart B.

Type of Review:  Extension of a currently approved collection.

Abstract:  Part 746, subpart B, will govern most authorized appeals to the Board of adverse determinations made at program office levels under agency regulations that permit such an appeal. The procedures apply to federal credit unions (FCUs), federally insured, state-chartered credit unions (FISCUs), or certain institution affiliated parties (IAPs) such as officers or directors when appealing an adverse agency determination under one of the rules to which part 746, subpart B, would apply. The procedures are intended to result in greater efficiency, consistency, and better understanding of the way in which matters under covered regulations may be appealed to the Board.
