AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a changed circumstances review (CCR) of the antidumping duty (AD) order on wooden cabinets and vanities and components thereof (cabinets) from the People’s Republic of China (China) and simultaneously issuing preliminarily results, finding that Goldenhome Living Co., Ltd., (Goldenhome) is the successor-in-interest to Xiamen Goldenhome Co., Ltd., (Xiamen Goldenhome).

DATES: Effective [INSERT DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER].

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 21, 2020, we published in the Federal Register an AD order on cabinets from China, which included Xiamen Goldenhome.¹ Pursuant to the Order, Commerce assigned Xiamen Goldenhome an AD cash deposit rate, adjusted for a subsidy offset, of 37.96 percent, based on the non-selected respondent rate.²

² Id., 85 FR at 22127.
On July 19, 2021, Goldenhome informed Commerce that, as of October 9, 2020, Xiamen Goldenhome changed its name to “Goldenhome Living Co., Ltd.” Goldenhome stated the change was in name only; all other former business operations remain unchanged. Goldenhome requested that Commerce conduct a CCR and find that Goldenhome is the successor-in-interest to Xiamen Goldenhome, and that it be subject to Xiamen Goldenhome’s AD margin, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.216(b). After finding Goldenhome did not address the good cause requirement in its initial request pursuant to 19 CFR 351.216(c), Commerce issued a letter to Goldenhome requesting it demonstrate good cause. On August 30, 2021, Goldenhome filed its response demonstrating good cause in accordance with 19 CFR 351.216(c). We did not receive comments from other interested parties concerning this request.

Scope of the Order

The products covered by the Order are wooden cabinets and vanities that are for permanent installation (including floor mounted, wall mounted, ceiling hung or by attachment of plumbing), and wooden components thereof. For a complete description of the scope of the Order, see the Preliminary Decision Memorandum.

Initiation of Changed Circumstances Review

Section 751(b)(4)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(c) state that, “in the absence of good cause shown,” the Secretary of Commerce may not review a final AD or countervailing duty (CVD) determination less than 24 months after the date of publication of the notice of final determination or notice of suspension of an investigation. The final determination of the AD investigation of cabinets from China published on February 28, 2020.\(^9\) Goldenhome argues that good cause exists to ensure the appropriate cash deposit rate applies to Goldenhome’s entries and that Commerce previously found in similar situations that a name change, with no further changes in the company’s operations, constitutes good cause pursuant to 19 CFR 351.216(c) to initiate a CCR.\(^10\) Therefore, we preliminarily find that good cause has been shown pursuant to 19 CFR 351.216(c) to initiate a CCR less than 24 months after the publication of the notice of final determination.\(^11\)

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce will conduct a CCR upon receipt of information concerning, or a request from, an interested party for a review of an AD order which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the order. We preliminarily find the information provided sufficient to warrant a CCR of the Order. Specifically, the information submitted by Goldenhome supporting its claim that Goldenhome is the successor-in-interest to Xiamen Goldenhome demonstrates changed circumstances sufficient to warrant such a review.\(^12\) In accordance with 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), we are initiating a CCR based on the information contained in Goldenhome’s submission to determine whether Goldenhome is the successor-in-interest to Xiamen Goldenhome.

Section 351.221(c)(3)(ii) of Commerce’s regulations permits Commerce to combine the notice of initiation of a CCR and the notice of preliminary results if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted. In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.

Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review

In determining whether one company is the successor to another for AD purposes, Commerce examines several factors including, but not limited to, changes in: (1) management; (2) production facilities; (3) suppliers; and (4) customer base. While no one, or several, of these factors will necessarily provide a dispositive indication of succession, Commerce will generally consider one company to be the successor to another company if its resulting operations are essentially the same as those of its predecessor. Thus, if the evidence demonstrates that, with respect to the production and sale of the subject merchandise, the company, in its current form, operates as essentially the same business entity as the prior company, Commerce will assign the new company the cash deposit rate of its predecessor.

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.216, we preliminarily determine that Goldenhome is the successor-in-interest to Xiamen Goldenhome. Record evidence, as submitted by Goldenhome, indicates that, based on the totality of the circumstances under Commerce’s successor-in-interest criteria, Goldenhome’s management and business relations are virtually identical to those of Xiamen Goldenhome before the name change with respect to the merchandise under review. Moreover, we preliminarily find that Goldenhome’s production facilities, supplier relationships, and customer base, regarding the merchandise under review, are substantially the same as Xiamen Goldenhome before the name change. For the complete successor-in-interest analysis, see the Preliminary Decision Memorandum.

Should the final results of review remain the same as these preliminary results of review, effective the date of publication of the final results of review, we will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection to apply to entries of subject merchandise exported by Goldenhome the AD cash deposit rate applicable to Xiamen Goldenhome.
