SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Purpose of Meeting: Pursuant to the Commission's mandate, members of the Commission will meet to review and edit drafts of the 2023 Annual Report to Congress. The Commission is subject to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) with the enactment of the Science, State, Justice, Commerce and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2006 that was signed into law on November 22, 2005 (Public Law 109-108). In accordance with FACA, the Commission's meetings to make decisions concerning the substance and recommendations of its 2023 Annual Report to Congress are open to the public.

Topics to Be Discussed: Review and editing sessions will cover material prepared for the 2023 Annual Report, including: a review of economics, trade, security and foreign affairs developments in China and the U.S.-China relationship since the Commission's last Annual Report in November 2022; China's use of lawfare to change global norms; China's influence and interference; China's economy and the risks to U.S. investment; how China educates and trains its next generation workforce; the People's Liberation Army's military diplomacy; weapons technology and export controls; changing relations between China and Europe, Taiwan, and Hong Kong; and other matters within the Commission's mandate as the Commission chooses to take up in deliberation of the Annual Report.

Required Accessibility Statement: These meetings will be open to the public. The Commission may recess the meetings to address administrative issues in closed session. The Commission will also recess the meetings around noon for a lunch break or for other reasons as necessary. At the beginning of any break, the Chairman will announce what time the meetings will reconvene.

Authority: Congress created the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission in 2000 in the National Defense Authorization Act (Public Law 106-398), as amended by Division P of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003 (Public Law 108-7), as amended by Public Law 109-108 (November 22, 2005), as amended by Public Law 113-291 (December 19, 2014).

Dated: June 2, 2023.

Daniel W. Peck,

Executive Director,

U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission.
