Background

Reginfo.gov assists users who want to find federal regulatory information and provides a variety of graphical displays constituting a "Regulatory Dashboard." Users can select and identify rules under review by agency, economic significance, stage of rulemaking, or other characteristics, and compare the results for different agencies.

Reginfo.gov provides information on the following areas:

- Federal regulatory agendas and regulatory plans to include brief synopsis and timetables for action on rules that Federal departments and agencies are considering.
- Rules under review by the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) prior to initial publication or final adoption are listed.
- OIRA reviews of information collections, such as forms and surveys, under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA), are listed together with a complete inventory of currently approved information collections.

Reginfo.gov gives the public searchable access to this information to make more transparent the activities of OIRA and Federal agencies in rulemaking and information collection.
