SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The IRS is currently seeking comments concerning the following information collection tools, reporting, and record-keeping requirements:

Title: Disabled Access Credit.

OMB Number: 1545-1205.

Form Number: Form 8826.

Abstract: Internal Revenue Code section 44 allows eligible small businesses to claim a credit of 50% of the eligible access expenditures that exceeds $250 but do not exceed $10,000. Form 8826, Disabled Access Credit, is used by eligible small businesses to claim the 50 percent credit eligible access expenditures to comply with the requirements under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The credit is part of the general business credit. Form 8826 is used to figure the credit and the tax liability limit.

Current Actions: There is no change to the existing collection. However, However, the estimated number of responses was updated to eliminate duplication of the burden associated with individual and business respondents captured under OMB control numbers 1545-0074 and 1545-0123.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Private Sector.

Estimated Number of Responses: 55.

Estimated Time Per Respondent: 5 hours, 7 minutes.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 281.

The following paragraph applies to all of the collections of information covered by this notice:

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS: Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and (e) estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

Approved: October 30, 2023.

Jon R. Callahan,
Senior Tax Analyst.
