December 13, 2023.

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> notice is hereby given that on December 11, 2023, The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend Nasdaq Rule 5711(d)(iv)(A) to mirror the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares in Section (c)(1) of Arca’s Rule 8.201-E. Commodity-Based Trust Shares, as well as to correct a typographical error in Rule Nasdaq Rule 5711(d)(iv)(B).

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s Website at <https://listingcenter.nasdaq.com/rulebook/nasdaq/rules>, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item

IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to amend Nasdaq Rule 5711(d)(iv)(A) to mirror the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares in Section (c)(1) of Arca’s Rule 8.201-E. Commodity-Based Trust Shares.<sup>3</sup>

The Exchange proposes to conform its rule language for the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares to that of Arca’s so that there exists no discrepancy between the definitions. Specifically, Nasdaq currently defines “Commodity-Based Trust Shares” as “a security (1) that is issued by a trust (“Trust”) that holds a specified commodity deposited with the Trust; (2) that is issued by such Trust in a specified aggregate minimum number in return for a deposit of a quantity of the underlying commodity; and (3) that, when aggregated in the same specified minimum number, may be redeemed at a holder's request by such Trust which will deliver to the redeeming holder the quantity of the underlying commodity.”

The term “Commodity-Based Trust Shares” will now mirror Arca’s and be defined as “a security (1) that is issued by a trust (“Trust”) that holds (a) a specified commodity deposited with the Trust, or (b) a specified commodity and, in addition to such specified commodity, cash; (2) that is issued by such Trust in a specified aggregate minimum number in return for a deposit of a quantity of the underlying commodity and/or cash; and (c) that, when aggregated in the same specified minimum number, may be redeemed at a holder's request by such Trust which will deliver to the redeeming holder the quantity of the underlying commodity and/or cash.

Additionally, the Exchange proposes to correct a typographical error in Rule Nasdaq Rule 5711(d)(iv)(B) to change the Commodity Exchange Act cite from 1(a)(4) to 1a(9).

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with section 6(b) of the Act,<sup>4</sup> in general, and furthers the objectives of section 6(b)(5) of the Act,<sup>5</sup> in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest.

The Exchange believes that its proposal will remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest by harmonizing the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares with that of Arca and lessening any potential confusion among market participants as to its meaning.

The Exchange also believes that correcting the typographical error in Nasdaq Rule 5711(d)(iv)(B) serves to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest by lessening possible confusion of market participants as to where the term “commodity” is defined in the Commodity Exchange Act through clarifying the rule language and enhancing transparency.

For the foregoing reasons, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposal merely harmonizes the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares with that of Arca and lessens any potential confusion among market participants as to its meaning, as well as fixes a typographical error involving the Commodity Exchange Act that will clarify the rule language and enhance transparency.

For the foregoing reasons, the Exchange does not believe the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>6</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)<sup>7</sup> thereunder, the Exchange has designated this proposal as one that effects a change that: (i) does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) by its terms, does not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.<sup>8</sup>

A proposed rule change filed pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of its filing. However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii)<sup>9</sup> permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposal may become operative immediately upon filing. The proposed rule change, which modifies the Exchange's rules by conforming the definition of Commodity-Based Trust Shares with the same definition used by another national <sup>8</sup> In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

securities exchange<sup>10</sup> and corrects the citation for the term “commodity,” as defined in the Commodity Exchange Act, raises no unique or novel legal or regulatory issues and will lessen any potential confusion among market participants. Therefore, the Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Accordingly, the Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and designates the proposed rule change operative upon filing.<sup>11</sup>

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
