SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The information collections under OMB Control No. 1293-0016 provides to place job assistance counselors (Employment Navigators) on select military bases to assist transitioning service members move into the civilian labor force. Employment Navigators will assist transitioning service members to get placed on a best-fit pathway for his/her desired career. In order to create return on investment metrics, data must be collected on the services provided by Employment Navigators, and employment-based outcomes that follow. Data is expected to be collected directly from Employment Navigators assisting transitioning service members, as well as any DOL-approved service partners who also provided job-assistance services to the service members. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on December 21, 2023 (88 FR 88418).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
