Abstract of information available

The 77 associated funerary objects are from two sites. The 18 associated funerary objects removed from Elliot Mound (CV-7; CA-SAC-88) in Sacramento County, CA, include 18 spool-shaped baked clay items. The 59 associated funerary objects removed from Willow Mound (CV-18) in Sacramento County, CA include 14 bone beads, one bone tube, seven Haliotis ornaments, two strings of clam shell beads, one string Olivella beads, two strings glass trade beads, one lot loose beads, one carbonized hair and textile material fragment, five charmstone fragments, three pieces miscellaneous stone; six pieces miscellaneous material, five perforated stone discoidals, one obsidian projectile point, two brass buttons, one brass buckle, and seven metal objects.

Between 1930 and 1936, the 77 associated funerary objects were removed by Henry Gibbs, a private collector and looter. In 1937, Paul A. Walker purchased Gibbs' Central Valley, California archeological collection. Walker was an amateur archeologist and collector who worked by himself and with other amateur archeologists, and in collaboration with the University of California and Sacramento Junior College. Over the course of his life, Walker amassed an extensive archeological collection from California's Central Valley and smaller collections from Northern and Southern California, and outside of California. In 1968, Walker's private archeological collection was acquired by the San Diego Museum of Man (now Museum of Us) through a purchase/donation transaction with Walker's widow, Bessie B. Walker.

Cultural affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location or acquisition history of the associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The Museum of Us has determined that:

- The 77 objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- There is a reasonable connection between the associated funerary objects described in this notice and the Wilton Rancheria, California.

The Museum of Us is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.
