Abstract: The National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAP) for Surface Coating of Metal Coil (40 CFR part 63, subpart SSSS) were promulgated on June 10, 2002, and most recently amended on February 25, 2020. These regulations apply to existing facilities and new facilities that are major sources of hazardous air pollutants (HAP) at which a coil coating line is operated. A coil coating line is a process in which special equipment is used to apply an organic coating to the surface of metal coils; the affected source at each plant site is the collection of all coil coating lines at the site. The provisions of this subpart do not apply to coil coating lines that are part of research or laboratory equipment or coil coating lines on which at least 85 percent of the metal coil coated, based on surface area, is less than 0.15 millimeters (0.006 inches) thick, unless the coating line is controlled by a common control device. New facilities include those that commenced construction or reconstruction after the date of proposal. This information is being collected to assure compliance with 40 CFR part 63, subpart SSSS.

Form Numbers: 5900-0526

Respondents/affected entities: Facilities engaged in metal coil surface coating.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Mandatory (40 CFR part 63, subpart SSSS).

Estimated number of respondents: 48 (total).

Frequency of response: Initially and semiannually.

Total estimated burden: 16,200 hours (per year). Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.03(b).

Total estimated cost: $2,220,000 (per year), which includes $166,000 annualized capital or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is a decrease of 638 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by OMB. The previous burden estimate assumed 21 facilities would conduct performance tests in year three of the rulemaking ICR, assumed respondents would incur burden to revise record systems due to the amendments, and to become familiar with the EPA's CEDRI for electronic reporting. This ICR reflects the ongoing burden for sources to comply with periodic testing requirements every five years and assumes respondents will not incur additional burden for revising record systems due to the previous rule amendments or for familiarization with CEDRI.
