SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Division of Federal Employees' Compensation (DFEC) administers the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). A Federal employee who sustains a work-related injury is entitled to receive compensation under the FECA. 5 U.S.C. § 8106 requires payment of compensation for partial disability to injured Federal employees. This section also requires the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) to obtain information regarding a claimant's earnings during a period of eligibility to compensation. The CA-1027 is used to obtain earning information for an individual who is employed by a private employer. This information is used to determine the claimant's entitlement to compensation benefits.
