Title: Aviation Maintenance Technician Schools.

Form Numbers: FAA Form 8310-6.

Type of Review: This is a renewal of an information collection.

Background: This information collection summarizes the burden imposed by 14 CFR part 147 regulations, issued under Section 135 of the Aircraft Certification, Safety, and Accountability Act (Public Law 116-260). It includes reporting and recordkeeping requirements for Aviation Maintenance Technician Schools (AMTS).

Applicants and certificate holders submit the required information to their FAA Flight Standards office. The FAA uses this information to determine compliance with part 147 requirements for issuing or maintaining an air agency certificate. When applicants meet all requirements, the FAA issues a certificate with the appropriate ratings. For certificated AMTS, the FAA uses the submitted information to verify an AMTS provides appropriate training at each training location, meets quality control system requirements, and ensures that AMTS students receive appropriate documentation showing the student's eligibility to take the FAA mechanic certification tests.

Respondents: Approximately 10 AMTS applicants, and 208 FAA-certificated applicants respond to this collection annually.

Frequency: AMTS applicants respond one time, prior to certification. FAA-certificated AMTS respond occasionally after certification and have ongoing recordkeeping requirements.

Estimated Average Burden per Response: 29 hours/response on average.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 21,901 hours/year.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on April 16, 2025.
