Abstract: The Sexual Assault Services Formula Grant Program (SASP) funding is awarded to states and territories. These funds support rape crisis centers and other nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations or tribal programs that provide services, direct intervention, and related assistance to victims of sexual assault and their families. The first federal funding stream solely dedicated to the provision of direct intervention and related assistance for victims of sexual assault, the SASP funds are designed to supplement other funding sources directed at addressing sexual assault at the state and territorial level. SASP grants support intervention, advocacy, accompaniment, support services, and related assistance for adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims, and those collaterally affected by the sexual assault. The grant funds are distributed by SASP state administrators to subgrantees as outlined under the provisions of the Violence Against Women Act, 34 U.S.C. §12511.
