[Docket No. AD25-7-000]

Meeting the Challenge of Resource Adequacy in Regional Transmission

Organization and Independent System Operator Regions; Notice Requesting Post-Conference Comment

On June 4 and 5, 2025, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) convened a Commissioner-led technical conference to discuss generic issues related to resource adequacy constructs, including the roles of capacity markets in the Regional Transmission Organization (RTO)/Independent System Operator (ISO) regions that utilize them and alternative constructs in RTO/ISO regions without capacity markets.

All interested persons are invited to file post-conference comments to address issues raised during the conference that they believe would benefit from further discussion. Parties are also invited to provide comments on the questions presented in the conference agenda.¹ Commenters need not respond to all topics or questions asked.

Commenters may reference material previously filed in this docket but are encouraged to avoid repetition or replication of previous material. To facilitate the processing of comments, we urge commenters to organize their comments by panel topic and question presented at the conference, and to be brief. In addition, commenters are encouraged, when possible, to provide examples and evidence in support of their answers. However, we also remind commenters to avoid submission of ex parte communications discussing the merits of any contested proceeding.² Comments must be submitted on or before Monday, July 7, 2025.

Comments may be filed electronically via the Internet.³ Instructions are available on the Commission's website <http://www.ferc.gov/docs-filing/efiling.asp>. For assistance, please contact FERC Online Support at FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov or toll free at 1-866-208-3676, or for TTY, (202) 502-8659. Although the Commission strongly encourages electronic filing, documents may also be paper-filed. To paper-file, submissions sent via the U.S. Postal Service must be addressed to: Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Office of the Secretary, 888 First Street NE, Washington, DC 20426. Submissions sent via any other carrier must be addressed to: Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Office of the Secretary, 12225 Wilkins Avenue, Rockville, MD 20852.
