Abstract of information available

A total of three cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The three sacred objects are one adz (1992.24.12.), one boar tusk bracelet (2001.100.1349), and one necklace (2001.100.1926). The sacred objects were removed from Hawai'i. The adz (1922.24.12) was accessioned in 1922 as a gift from Dr. Winslow. The bracelet and necklace (2001.100.1349 and 2001.100.1926) were previously part of the Kendall Whaling Museum collection and became part of NBWM's collections following the institutional merger in 2001. The NBWM has no knowledge of any potentially hazardous substances used to treat the sacred objects.

Determinations

The NBWM has determined that:

- The three sacred objects described in this notice are specific ceremonial objects needed by a traditional Native American religious leader for present-day adherents to practice traditional Native American religion, according to the Native American traditional knowledge of a lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization.
- There is a reasonable connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Hui Iwi Kuamo'o.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after [INSERT DATE 30 DAYS AFTER DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER]. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the NBWM must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The NBWM is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and to any other consulting parties.
