Abstract of information available

A total of 10 objects of cultural patrimony have been requested for repatriation. The objects of cultural patrimony are from the following accessions: Acc. 341, Acc. 342, Acc. 346 and Acc. 352 in the Phoebe A Hearst Museum of Anthropology at the University of California, Berkeley.

In 1908 Thomas T. Waterman, a student of Alfred Kroeber at University of California, Berkeley, removed eight baskets and two vessels from Cahuilla Reservation, Riverside County, California. Correspondence between Waterman and Kroeber detail the anthropological work being conducted by Waterman in the region, the removal of numerous cultural belongings, and their shipment to the University of California Museum of Anthropology (today the Phoebe A. Hearst Museum of Anthropology.)

Collections and collection spaces at the Phoebe A Hearst Museum of Anthropology were treated with substances for preservation and pest control, some potentially hazardous. No records have been found to date at the Museum to indicate whether or not chemicals or natural substances were used prior to 1960.

Determinations

The University of California, Berkeley has determined that:

- The 10 lots of objects of cultural patrimony described in this notice have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision), according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.
- There is a connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Cahuilla Band of Indians.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after
