SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Purpose of Meeting: Pursuant to the Commission's mandate, members of the Commission will meet to review and edit drafts of the 2025 Annual Report to Congress. Relevant provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) apply to the Commission with the enactment of the Science, State, Justice, Commerce and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2006 that was signed into law on November 22, 2005 (Public Law 109-108). In accordance with applicable provisions of FACA, the Commission opens to the public certain meetings concerning the substance of its 2025 Annual Report to Congress.

Topics to Be Discussed: The review and editing session will cover material prepared for the 2025 Annual Report based on Commission hearings this year; a review of economics, trade, security and foreign affairs developments in 2025 including those relating to Taiwan and Hong Kong; and other matters in the Commission's mandate the Commission chooses to take up in deliberation of the Annual Report.

Required Accessibility Statement: This meeting will be open to the public. The Commission may recess the meeting to address administrative issues in closed session. The Commission will also recess the meeting around noon for a lunch break. At the beginning of the lunch break, the Chair will announce what time the meeting will reconvene.

Authority: Congress created the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission in 2000 in the National Defense Authorization Act (Public Law 106-398), as amended by Public Laws No. 107-67 (November 12, 2001), No. 108-7 (February 20, 2003), 109-108 (November 22, 2005), No. 110-161 (December 26, 2007), No. 113-291 (December 19, 2014), and No. 117-286 (December 27, 2022).

Dated: September 16, 2025.

Christopher P. Fioravante,

Deputy Executive Director,

U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission.
