- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected.
- Minimize the reporting burden on those who are to respond, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Please note that comments submitted in response to this Notice are public record. Before including any detailed personal information, you should be aware that your comments as submitted, including your personal information, will be available for public review.

Abstract of Proposed Collection

Under Section 101(a)(27)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101, and INA section 203(b)(4), an alien may be issued a special immigrant visa as a returning resident if he or she is an immigrant, previously admitted as a lawful permanent resident or conditional resident, who is returning from a temporary visit abroad of more than one year due to circumstances beyond his or her control. The DS-117 is used to collect the information necessary to determine a returning resident's eligibility for such a visa.

Methodology

Aliens will submit the DS-117 electronically via email, or they will print the form and submit it in person to a U.S. embassy or consulate abroad.

Stuart R Wilson,

Deputy Assistant Secretary,

Bureau of Consular Affairs,

Department of State.
