SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On September 10, 2025, the Employment and Training Administration published a 60-day Federal Register notice at 90 FR 43640 for the public to comment on proposed revisions to the ICR covered under H-2A Temporary Agricultural Labor Certification Program OMB Control Number 1205-0466 based on changes proposed through the notice of proposed rulemaking “Recission of Final Rule:

Improving Protections for Workers in Temporary Agricultural Employment in the United States.” The notice of proposed rulemaking proposed to rescind provisions of the H-2A final rule published by the Department on April 29, 2024. Due to the government shutdown, the public could not request copies of all associated forms and materials and review those materials to inform potential comments on the Federal Register notice because OFLC staff were not available to provide those documents during a significant portion of the 60-day comment period, which concluded on November 10, 2025.

Therefore, the Department is reopening the 60-day comment period until [INSERT DATE 30 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER] to allow the public additional time to request the support documents and provide comments related to the ICR covered under 1205-0466.

Susan Frazier,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training, Labor.
