Abstract of information available

Ancestor remains representing, at least, one individual have been identified. The 818 associated funerary objects are 253 pottery sherds, decorated and undecorated; 507 chert lithic flakes; three lots of faunal remains, species unidentified; three lots of charcoal and soil; two lots of comingled charcoal, soil, and faunal remains; two clay pipe fragments; 24 chert lithic tool fragments; six greenstone flakes; two pigment fragments, including limonite and hematite; two charcoal fragments; 10 miscellaneous stones; one burned shell fragment; one daub fragment; one calcined shell fragment; and one broken clay bead. Site 1Cu24 is a multi-component village site, located on a high terrace of Mulberry Fork of the Black Warrior River in Cullman County, AL. The collection was removed from the site by University of Alabama at Birmingham, Department of Anthropology faculty member Dr. Roger Nance as part of a university-sponsored field school in 1989-1990. Based on diagnostic artifacts from the site, site use dates to the Late Archaic (3800 BC – 1200 BC), Woodland (1200 BC – A.D. 1000), and Early Mississippian (A.D. 1000 – 1350) periods. The ancestor and belongings likely date to the Late Woodland to Early Mississippian periods. There is no record of any potentially hazardous substances being used to treat either the ancestor or the associated belongings.

Cultural affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location or acquisition history of the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice.

Determinations

The University of Alabama at Birmingham has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry.
- The 818 objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- There is a connection between the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice and the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas; Poarch Band of Creek Indians; The Muscogee (Creek) Nation; and the Thlopthlocco Tribal Town.

Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects described in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after [INSERT DATE 30 DAYS AFTER DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER]. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the University of Alabama at Birmingham must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects are considered a single request and not competing requests. The University of Alabama at Birmingham is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice and any other consulting parties.
