SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.-- On November 8, 2024, the President, pursuant to section 203 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2253) (Trade Act), issued Proclamation 10857, imposing a safeguard measure on imports of fine denier PSF, in the form of a quantitative restriction on imports of fine denier PSF admitted temporarily free of duty under bond and entered under subheading 5503.20.00. The proclamation was published in the Federal Register on November 20, 2024 (89 FR 92015). The measure took effect on November 23, 2024, for a period of four years, or through November 22, 2028. The President imposed the measure following receipt of a report from the Commission in August 2024 under section 202 of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2252) that contained an affirmative determination, remedy recommendations, and certain additional findings (see Fine Denier Polyester Staple Fiber, investigation No. TA-201-78, USITC Publication 5536, August 2024).

Section 204(a)(1) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2254(a)(1)) requires the Commission to monitor developments with respect to the domestic industry, including the progress and specific efforts made by workers and firms in the domestic industry to make a positive adjustment to import competition, as long as any action under section 203 of the Trade Act remains in effect. Whenever the initial period of such an action exceeds 3 years, section 204(a)(2) requires the Commission to submit a report on the results of the monitoring to the President and the Congress no later than the mid-point of the initial period of the relief – in this case by November 23, 2026. Section 204(a)(3) requires the Commission to hold a hearing in the course of preparing such report.

For further information concerning the conduct of this investigation, hearing procedures, and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 206, subparts A and F (19 CFR part 206).
