

BILLING CODE 7020-02

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-802-804 and 731-TA-1799-1803 (Preliminary)]

Linear Hydraulic Cylinders from Canada, China, India, Mexico, and South Korea, Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of linear hydraulic cylinders from Canada, China, India, Mexico, and South Korea, provided for in subheadings 8412.21.00 and 8412.90.90 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (“LTFV”) and subsidized by the governments of China, India, and Mexico.^{2 3}

COMMENCEMENT OF FINAL PHASE INVESTIGATIONS

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission’s rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in § 207.21 of the Commission’s rules, upon notice from the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under §§ 703(b) or 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under §§ 705(a) or 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Any other party may file an entry of appearance for the final phase of the investigations after publication of the final phase notice of scheduling. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations. As provided in section 207.20 of the Commission's rules, the Director of the Office of Investigations will circulate draft questionnaires for the final phase of the investigations to parties to the investigations, placing copies on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>), for comment.

BACKGROUND

On July 29, 2026, the Hydraulic Cylinders Fair Trade Coalition and its individual members - Aggressive Hydraulics Inc., Cedar, Minnesota; Hol-Mac Corporation, Bay Springs, Mississippi; Ligon Hydraulics, Tonawanda, New York; Prince Manufacturing Corporation, Lexington, South Carolina; PTC Alliance LLC, Wexford, Pennsylvania; Rosenboom Machine and Tool Inc., Sheldon, Iowa; Scot Industries Inc., Lone Star, Texas; Stillwell Inc., Burnsville, Minnesota; and Texas Hydraulics Inc., Temple, Texas - filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of linear hydraulic cylinders from China, India, and Mexico and LTFV imports of linear hydraulic cylinders from Canada, China, India, Mexico, and South Korea.

Accordingly, effective July 29, 2026, the Commission instituted countervailing duty investigation Nos. 701-TA-802-804 and antidumping duty investigation Nos. 731-TA-1799-1803 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of August 4, 2026 (91 FR 49442).⁴

The Commission conducted its conference on August 19, 2026. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to §§ 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on October 9, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5800 (October 2026), entitled Linear Hydraulic Cylinders from Canada, China, India, Mexico, and South Korea: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-802-804 and 731-TA-1799-1803 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

⁴ Due to the notice of extension of the deadline for determining the adequacy of the antidumping and countervailing duty petitions by Commerce, the Commission revised its schedule for this proceeding. The revised schedule was published in a subsequent notice in the Federal Register on August 26, 2026 (91 FR 55112).

Issued: October 9, 2026.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
