On September 21, 2010, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) published the Order on Magnesia Bricks from China.[1] On July 02, 2026, Commerce published the notice of initiation of the third sunset review of the Order, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(c).[2]

specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1)(i).[3] The Committee claims that it has interested party status within the meaning of section 771(9)(C) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.102(b)(29)(vii) as a trade or business association a majority of whose members manufacture, produce, or wholesale a domestic like product in the United States.[4]

On July 31, 2026, Commerce received an adequate substantive response from the Committee, within the 30-day deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3)(i).[5] Commerce did not receive a substantive response from either the Government of China or a respondent interested party to this proceeding. On August 24, 2026, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) that it did not receive an adequate substantive response from respondent interested parties.[6] As a result, Commerce conducted an expedited (120-day) sunset review of the Order, pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(B)(2) and (C)(2).

Scope of the Order

The product covered by this Order is magnesia bricks from China. For the full description of the scope of the Order, see the Issues and Decisions Memorandum.[7]
